HOSPITALITIES RESUMED AT EMBASSY OF MEXICO.

A Home Wedding of Miss Jenkins and Mr. Smith-Travels-Per-

Mme. Creel, wife of the Mexican ambassador, resumed her Thursday afternoons at home yesterday, continuing the custom which so delightfully restored to the embassy last winter the social eclat which it has held since its first occupancy. The ambassador was present also to entertain the callers and Mme Creel was further assisted by Mme. and Miss Godoy and Mrs. and Miss Brodie. The drawing room was profusely adorned with chrysanthemums. Mme. Godoy presided at the

FACTIONS IN OHIO.

What Postmaster Bryson Thinks of Mr. C. H. Bryson, postmaster at Athens, Ohio, is in this city and in an interview

"The situation in Ohio, from a republican standpoint, is worse today than it was when Secretary Taft's presidential boom was launched. Then the state seemed to be almost unanimous for him, Marcia Burns Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. Julian C. Dowell, 3162 Mount Pleasant street.

closed up, may throw the state into the democratic column next fall. "There should be a compromise such as was suggested many months ago; this provided for the indorsement of Taft for President and Foraker for re-election to the Senate. "Unless harmony is restored the contest will continue until next year, and then Secretary Taft, even thought nominated by the national convention, would probably lose the state.'
